Mechanical engineering for January-December 2024

For the period January-December of the current year, compared to 2023, the volume of production of mechanical engineering products in value terms increased by 10.8%, amounting to 4,642.5 billion tenge. The physical volume index compared to the same period last year was 109.7%.

In terms of industry sectors, the following indicators of the physical volume index were achieved:

Physical volume index of production of computers, electronic and optical equipment (165.1%);

Physical volume index of production of other vehicles (158.6%);

Physical volume index of production of machinery and equipment not included in other categories (122.1%);

Physical volume index of production of electrical equipment (108.9%);

Physical volume index of production of cars, trailers and semi-trailers (97%).

Physical volume index of repair and installation of machinery and equipment (96.4%).

Exports of mechanical engineering products for January-November 2024 compared to the same period in 2023 in monetary terms decreased by 4.6% and amounted to 3,934.2 million US dollars.

The main export countries for this period: Russia (46.2%), Ireland (16.4%), Uzbekistan (5.1%), Kyrgyzstan (5.0%).

Imports of mechanical engineering products for January-November 2024 compared to the same period in 2023 in monetary terms decreased by 7.7% and amounted to 22,450.2 million US dollars. In the import structure, the main share falls on aircraft (6.9%), cars with engine displacements from 1501 to 3000 cm3 (4.5%), smartphones (4.1%), car bodies (4.0%).

The main countries supplying mechanical engineering products to Kazakhstan are: China (34.8%), Russia (12.4%), Germany (6.3%), the USA (6.1%), and the Republic of Korea (6.1%).

The industry is characterized by a high territorial concentration in the northern and central regions of the country (Kostanay region, Astana city, Karaganda, Akmola, Pavlodar and North Kazakhstan regions), as well as the city of Almaty.
